Welcome to W London Leicester Square. Get ready to detox with a fresh new year and check out some of my favourite highlights this month.

WINTER LIGHTS CANARYWHARF.COM

The bright lights of Canary Wharf's towers already provide quite the spectacle after dark, but the area is set to glow even more than usual this month thanks to the addition of a variety of installations from international artists. Winter Lights returns with 30 electric artworks, installations and interactive experiences, with many on show in the UK for the first time. Highlights include a live graffiti weekend with work crafted from light (Jan 19-21) and 'Angels of Freedom' which sees five giant wings created by Merav Etan and Gaston Zahr that allow visitors to transform into angels using photography and social media.

ANOTHER SPACE ANOTHERSPACE.LONDON

Gym chain Third Space has cottoned on to the fact that many fitness fans have fallen out of love with membership fees and restrictive contracts. So their newest gym is strictly pay-as-you-go. It offers three classes: HIIT (a mix of boxing and floor work), cycle (spinning with a focus on core strength) and yoga (take your pick from hot or 'ambient'). There's also a small café, serving healthy snacks and protein shakes.

Now three years auld, this riotously fun party to celebrate Scotland's most celebrated poet features all the traditional Burns Night festivities given a modern twist. There'll be a three-course Burns supper - including live pipers and a huge delightfully rowdy ceilidh. The party takes place in the beautiful St John-at-Hackney Church over two nights, so there's no excuse not to indulge. It's what Rabbie would have wanted.
